Day 6: Drive from Joshimath to Rishikesh.

DAY: 01

---

DReach Joshimath

Your journey begins in Rishikesh, a city known for its spiritual aura and adventure activities. Trekkers will be picked up from Rishikesh.

The road trip starts along the pleasing Badrinath Road. The journey is long, but filled with captivating landscapes and cultural landmarks, making the 9-10 hour drive to Joshimath an enriching experience. You will also notice how the Alaknanda River character transforms, starting as a serene flow but becoming increasingly wild and powerful as we climb higher into the Himalayas. The sights are truly spellbinding, with the river carving through the valley and towering peaks lining the horizon.

You will arrive at Joshimath around 6:00 pm, where you will be welcomed with tea, followed by a trek briefing and dinner. Accommodation will be arranged at a guest house, and if you need to connect with family or friends, telephone networks are available in the area.

DAY: 02

Joshimath to Dhak By Drive and Trek to Gulling Top

After an early breakfast at Joshimath, the journey begins with a picturesque 12 km drive to Dhak village. The rocky and winding roads provide great views of the Garhwal landscape, setting the stage for the adventure ahead. Dhak is the starting point of your trek, and from here, the trail provides a mix of steep and gradual ascents, mostly cutting through charming mountain villages.

The ascent becomes steeper as you leave behind the terraced farms and move higher up the trail. Soon, you'll encounter the stunning sight of Dronagiri peak. The rugged terrain transforms into an open meadow as we arrive at Gulling Top, where we will set up camp for the night. The Gulling campsite shows the surrounding peaks, with Dronagiri, Hathi Parvat, and Gauri Parbat, Brahmatal Peak dominating the horizon.

DAY: 03

Gulling Top to Khullara Top

The trail continues through thick oak, pine, and rhododendron forests. The trek becomes steeper as you ascend towards Khullara Top. As you reach the open meadows of Khullara, you are rewarded with panoramic views of the snow-clad peaks of the Garhwal Himalayas, including Nanda Devi and Dronagiri.

DAY: 04

Khullara Top to Kuari Pass and Back to Khullara Top

The highlight of the trek, the journey to Kuari Pass, involves a steady ascent through alpine meadows. Depending on the season, the trail may be covered with snow, making it even more picturesque. Upon reaching Kuari Pass, you get a stunning 360-degree view of some of India's highest peaks, including Mt. Nanda Devi, Dronagiri, Kamet, and Trishul. After spending some time at the pass, you retrace your steps back to Khullara Top.

DAY: 05

Khullara Top to Dhak Village via Gurson Bugyal and Auli and Drive to Joshimath

The descent from Khullara takes you through Gurson Bugyal, a stunning alpine meadow that offers uninterrupted views of the Himalayan peaks. The trail continues towards Auli, known for its famous ski slopes. The trek provides breathtaking views of the surrounding snow-covered mountains. From Auli, a short drive takes you back to Joshimath for a comfortable overnight stay.
